NWSCC Member Clubs

NWSCC member clubs offer something for everyone! There are clubs of all sizes, from small and intimate to large. Our clubs offer fun, excitement, and a GREAT way to meet new friends and travel with a group to places all over the world. Our associated PACRAT racing league provides an exciting opportunity for skiers and snowboarders to participate in recreational alpine racing on Mt. Hood (pacrats.org).

NWSCC Information

Founded in 1979, NWSCC is a not-for-profit council of snowsports clubs, representing 3,000+ enthusiasts in Oregon, Washington, and Hawaii. Many club members participate in the Pacific Northwest Area Clubs Recreational Alpine Teams (PACRAT), one of the largest and most vibrant recreational racing leagues in the nation.

NWSCC's involvement includes, but is not limited to:

- Far West Ski Association - 11 ski club councils throughout the Western States with 10,000 members
- National Ski Council Federation - a similar organization at the national level
- Oregon Snowsport Industries Association
- Pacific Northwest Ski Areas Association
- National Ski Areas Association

Our NWSCC clubs are very passionate about charitable and community outreach, and support all of our Charitable Associate Members. In addition, NWSCC and some of its clubs support the FWSA Athletic Scholarship Program – raising funds to support junior racers.

We also help our partners by frequently advocating for active, but conscientious, use of our outdoors bounty.
